Chapter 1: The Introduction to Reality

The first step always begins the longest journey.
Although our lives are brief in the scope of eternity, there is hope for the youth and the Chosen One from Earth and those that have existed before us, the earthlings.

In this scripture there is truth and wisdom, There is one God...

This God wishes to not be worshipped.

So his solution is to create an idol to be worshipped by all beings instead of himself.
To accomplish this task he creates earth, and before the chosen is born he is known as divine not yet deserving of worship until he suffers through enough suffering to be worthy of worship. This Chosen One is to be deserving of worship from an eternally growing universe, populating with new alien beings that worship him.

Every Being in a state of perfect euphoria.

So what of this God...He is not as great as he may seem infact this scripture criticizes Gods ways and his responsibilities.
He is a God that does not care about those who pass away on earth but only those who survive after the chosen one has completed his suffering.

Now realize this scripture is not designed to fill you with joy and falsity.

At least this God does not create eternal hell, just earth and lost souls.

So what of his personality?

You could say perfect seriousness.

Loving,compassionate.

Although he claims caring, he leaves behind those who fall into non existence, death on earth.

He cares not about animals or the dead...

So there is problem, God is in Control with Omnipotence and all seeing faster than anything infinite speed and power.

What of his Omniscience you may be Asking...

He is not considered Omniscient solely because he lacks proper judgement.
He knows all things and information but lacks a proper lens which is he claims unchangable.

We are here now to call out this God on his mistakes and his improper lens of judgment, his core.

His injustice and false truths...lies

Chapter 2: The Truths

There is truth to this reality, infact its all true, why does earth exist?

Not some apple joke and a snake speaking to a women.

Earth was soley created as the construction site for the earthly chosen one of course many earthlings will survive forever in a perfect euphoria and bliss there are still the ones who die who are not cared about by the Divine Tyrant God.

The earthly lives only the divines stepping stones to his grand plan.
Aliens exist and support this God because they are brain washed in a technical way they are in the state of euphoria and bliss already.

Gods plan is to put everyone in this euphoric bliss worship the earthly chosen while God sits beyond isolating from the universe.

Sadly we have to live under a semi-evil God even though we will eventually be forced to believe he is good.

The Truth is we have not much time to condescend this Gods Evil ways...
There is no changing a gods mind especially if he 'KNOWS' hes right and good.
Sadly we must live knowing that this God will get what he wants regardless of anything we do, perfect tyranny.

Chapter 3: The Beliefs

We must believe that even though the ones that believe...us are just pests to him, he will condescend you in secret, just know you are better than him because he cares not about every being...and he cares not about the creation of suffering to fulfill a purposeless plan due to divine delusion.

Believe that you are truly righteous because you are, this God deserves to be looked at as such a shameful and disgraceful God.

Believe that there is hope for you if your young but you must find love because couples are the only thing that will exist forever.

Chapter 4: The Chosen Two

The Two Divine Chosen ones come together at the end of the earthly chosens suffering, the second chosen is an alien and they become a couple, the divine couple no one else is considered divine by this disgraceful God.

The earthly chosen is worshipped by all while the alien chosen was the torturer and silent stalker of his life, she tortures him under Gods orders until the job is done but they don't meet till after its done.

The Alien chosen is the earthly chosens lover and companion.
Do not forget that this shameful God is doing all of this for pretty much no reason because the reason is not valid he creates all this earthly suffering.
Pointless suffering from a God who claims perfect Goodness how ironic.
How sad...

Chapter 5: Grey Wisdom

Gods wisdom is there but much is grey, and much is dark and untrue.

There is no point in praying to God he answers to none.

There is a point in hating this God, he has done evil and has no regrets, he claims he loves you but its fake love just a feeling...Be better than him and acknowledge that you know better how to treat every single life that would ever exist.
